Please direct your attention to the area between home plate and the backstop for our Special Awards ceremony

Since 1970 the Iowa High School Athletic Association has annually bestowed on individuals the IHSAA Media Award for the exemplary role they play in promoting an encouraging the educational athletic and extra-curricular programs of our member schools.

Tonight's honoree has a long and successful history to that end. Starting in high school he covered high school sports for his hometown newspapers in Albia. As a senior he was with winner of a national award from Quill & Scroll for the best high school news story. As a college student he worked as a sports reporter for the Des Moines Register and Iowa City Press-Citizen and later spent five years at the Quad City Times. Following a year at United Press International in Lincoln, NE and a year with the Arizona Republic, he returned to Iowa and taught journalism and language arts at Burlington and Prairie, Cedar Rapids.

He then served six years at the News Editor of the Ames Daily Tribune before joining the Iowa Cubs organization. He has served as Director of Media Relations and is now in his 14th year as the Director of Communications. In his position he has been instrumental to making sure the teams and fans at the state Tournament each have a memorable experience.

Ladies & Gentlemen, please greet one of the hardest working behind the scenes people in baseball – 2013 Media Award recipient ... SCOTT SAILOR

IHSBCA

Each winter at their Annual Clinic, the Iowa High School Baseball Coaches honor coaches, former players and umpires with induction into their Hall of Fame. Those individuals are invited to be recognized at the State Tournament. Tonight we have _____ of those who were inducted.

Our first inductee is a graduate of West Marshall High School who has become a successful high school coach. Following college he served six years as an assistant at Ballard High School. In 1992 he took over as the head coach at North Polk High School. He has led 8 teams to the State Tournament including this summer. His teams have had 2 runner-up finishes. This summer he eclipsed the 500-win milestone. A 2006 State Coach of the Year, please greet DAVE MIDDLETON

This coach retired with over 400 wins. A graduate of Cedar Rapids Jefferson, he started coaching after college graduation with stops at Amana and WACO, Olds before spending 22 years at West Branch. He retired to go into school administration at Riceville but later returned to coach at prairie, Cedar Rapids. He directed 3 teams into State Tournament play and continues his involvement in youth baseball at West Branch. Please welcome...DON TAYLOR

By most standards this individual is one of Boone High School's all-time best athletes. Already in the IHSAA Basketball Hall of Fame, he was also an all state football and baseball player and a State Champion Track performer. He played baseball and basketball at Northern Illinois University and was drafted by the New York Yankees following his junior season. He spent 4 years in their system before a series of injuries ended a promising career. Currently a successful businessman as CEO of Dutton and Associates in Illinois, welcome back . . . ROGER DUTTON

This honoree earned All-state honors at Bishop Heelan Catholic, in Sioux City and continued as a four year letter winner and regular at Iowa State, where he was a two-time All Big 8 Conference pitcher. He was drafted by the Oakland A's in 1992 and during the 1996 and 1997 seasons he was the workhorse of their pitching staff leading them in innings pitched as a starter and a relief pitcher. Through 2001 he also played for the Cubs, Royals, padres, Braves and closed his career with the Pirates. He lives in West Des Moines and is a pharmaceutical sales representative. He continues to help with youth and high school clinics in central lowa. Please meet Hall of Fame Player – DON WENGERT.

From 1956 to 1992 this honoree was one of the top baseball umpires in the state. In the late 70s he earned several assignments to the State Tournament. A highly used District and Substate official he was highly sought after by many Northwest Iowa prep tournaments and held the status rating of "superior." Throughout his 35 yr. career he also umpired many college and semi-pro games while being a multiple sport prep official. A resident of Milford where he and his wife have raised their family, please welcome L. KIRBY RANGE
